The College's Perspective

Mission

El Centro College is an urban learning institution preparing students to live, to work and to be of service in a diverse, global society.

Purpose

Provide continuing adult education programs
for occupational or cultural enrichment

Core Values

- Learning
- Diversity
- Integrity
- Honesty
- Excellence
- Communication

Goals

- ECONOMIC AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

We positively and significantly impact economic and workforce development initiatives key to the prosperity of Dallas County (with an emphasis on the Southern Sector), North Texas, the state, and the nation.

Goals

- COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

We add value to lives and build communities by continually strengthening and expanding our connections with civic, community, and educational organizations.

Advantages

- Strengthens the community
- Visibility for ECC outside of Dallas County
- Connects us to potential students for other programs
- We already have the infrastructure that the project needs

Challenges

- College rules and timelines don't always make sense to the partner
- NTFB has clients in 13 counties – how do we serve everyone?
- Funding for program improvement and curriculum development
